

The Best Restaurants In The Hamptons

Eating in the Hamptons is all about how you do it: you can find yourself in mediocre, overpriced restaurants that you'll regret stepping foot into, or, you can do it our way and head to the selection of actually good places that are worth your time. On the list below, you'll find everything from taco stands and clam shacks to sit-down restaurants that, while pricey, actually serve great food in nice environments.

Headed out to Montauk? For our separate guide to the best restaurants there, click here.

The Clam Bar

Just a bit down the road from Lunch, you'll find Clam Bar. The menu is similar, and while we love the lobster salad roll here too, we like to come to Clam Bar for everything else—oysters, clams, and even whole lobsters. The all-outdoor setting is the ideal place to eat before or after you hit the beach.