Extravagant Hamptons wedding attended by Don Lemon, Joy Behar and Huma Abedin had a flash mob, drone show and Debbie Gibson

Who said the Hamptons is dead after Labor Day?

Last weekend, a wedding for 400 guests — including Don Lemon, Joy Behar, Huma Abedin and Anthony Weiner — included drones, a flash mob and a Debbie Gibson performance, we hear.

When Almond restaurant group's co-owner Eric Lemonides wed his longtime partner, top Compass agent Lee Felty, at Sagaponack's Foster Farm, a source told us, "It was an intimate gathering of 400 of their closest friends who enjoyed a flash mob ceremony with aspiring Broadway actors, officiated by journalist Linette Lopez, a 15-minute drone show seen throughout Sagaponack," and Gibson singing "Lost in Your Eyes" for the couple's first dance.

The '80s pop star, 53, then "kicked off three hours of dancing with a 12-minute ABBA medley."

Also at the nups, planned by Jill Gordon, were events whiz Bronson van Wyck, Pippa Cohen, B-52s singer Fred Schneider, interior designer Jamie Drake, political operator

Robert Zimmerman, artist Toni Ross, Brooke Garber Neidich, Almond partner (and Anthony's brother) Jason Weiner and his wife, Almond Zigmund.
